I wonder why the sower and the seeds looked so happy at the beginning of the parable?
I wonder why some of the seeds didn't grow strong and tall?
I wonder what you can do to listen to God's message and to grow strong in faith?

Dear God,
Help me to listen to what you have to say to me.
May the Evil One not snatch the message away.
May troubles not cause me to stop following you.
May worrying about material things not choke out my longing for holiness.
May I grow and flourish in your kingdom.
Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Night night, sleep well, God bless x
